DR-98-001-01

Southern Extreme features three free jazz legends in an amazing live performance recorded at Mississippi State. This group of veterans represents three of the most under documented musicians from their era. Each of these musicians has been pivotal in the development of the jazz tradition that they continue with this recording.

"Fans of improvised jazz should not hesitate to seek out this group, not only to ensure that Jordan earns recognition on a wider level, but also because the trio has many highly-rewarding musical stories to tell." – Signal to Noise

"There is great strength in the rush of this music as well as tenderness." – Coda (Canada)

"Their first recording for the Drimala label is a winner all the way, indicative of the high quality to be expected from these neglected musical virtuosi." – All Music Guide, 4 ½ stars

"A powerful statement." – Fred Jung, jazz writer
